

Pastor Audrey Johnson's Bio

Pastor Audrey Johnson, a stalwart in the ministry since 1997, has held various significant roles. He has served as Director of Christian Education and Outreach Ministry, Youth Pastor, Associate Pastor, and Director of Church Operations. Alongside his wife, Lady Shawn Johnson, he is the co-founder of Pool of Bethesda Ministry, a noble initiative aimed at aiding the poor, feeding the homeless, and supporting the disenfranchised. Pastor Johnson's leadership extends to the LIFT Program which he founded and directs, dedicated to enhancing the lives and futures of 3rd through 5th graders through tutoring in math, reading, science, and social services.

He is a lifelong servant dedicated to living by example and encouraging men, women, youth, and children to live their lives to their full potential. He is a retired military officer of 25 years, a retired federal government employee of 13 years, a Phi Kappa Phi National Honor Society member, and a Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity member.

He graduated from the University of Colorado School of Engineering with a Masters' in Telecommunications and Information Systems Management. He is presently pursuing a Masters of Divinity degree from Hood Theological Seminary.

Pastor Johnson is a minister who strives to bring community elements into the church, connecting people to God and one another and developing a fellowship of believers. He loves the Lord and the people of God and is honored to be a "servant at heart- Abiding in God's Grace."

He and his wife, Shawn, are proud parents of three adult children, Tanisha, Frank, and Crystal; and they have five grandchildren.
